BushwickBK.com: I'll check but I think there are few strings attached except that you have to be listed as a "coalition partner" or whatever crap BushwickBK.com: part of their agenda is to give local orgs $1000 BushwickBK.com: they haven't done jack shit with it BUT BushwickBK.com: chez bushwick got a 150K grant from the Rockfellers to do community building crapola BushwickBK.com: you know, I know where we could get a $1000 grant if you can get this off the ground me: right, we would want to make sure that we're not unduly constrained by accepting the money, but otherwise I'm down BushwickBK.com: I mean, again, depends on what you gotta do for it, but I'll find out BushwickBK.com: yeah me: could be useful to have a little money for whatever expenses might arise me: sure, look into that
